Arizona State University

Arizona State University is an internationally recognized metropolitan Research I University. The main campus is located adjacent to downtown Tempe. This campus consists of approximately 722 acres, including academics, athletics, and administrative/operations facilities, as well as residence halls. More than 5,000 students can reside in the 13 on-campus halls. Another 400 students reside in 15 on-campus Greek houses (23 fraternities and 18 sororities). Life on campus continues to be enhanced by the two-story, 135,000 square-foot Student Recreation Complex, which has served the recreational needs of its students. In addition, the 18 hole Karsten Golf Course, located on 153 acres east of the intersection of Rural Road and University Drive, is used for golf classes and for training and competition by the ASU men's and women's golf teams. The course has hosted national competitions and is open to the general public on a daily fee basis.
